EXETER'S WAR HOSPITALS 1914-1919

Exeter's WWI Red Cross Hospitals were amongst the earliest commissioned. Ready by late August, their first patients came in early October. By Christmas 1914 they provided more Red Cross beds than any other UK provincial town. Over 35,000 patients, many sent from France or Flanders by hospital ship and then ambulance train from Southampton, were treated in Exeter's eight hospitals between 1914 and 1919

This year's War Hospitals' exhibition in Exeter Guildhall September 14-16, 10am- 4pm includes food and Red Cross cooks. How did the ladies manage to feed thousands of patients and staff at a time of food shortages?
How many of you knew that there was a WWI hospital in Chudleigh? Alpha House, in Fore Street, was used as a VAD hospital.
One patient who died was buried in an unmarked grave (a Portuguese forestry labourer). Members of Chudleigh History Group have rectified this with a cross 'In memory of Antonio Da Silva. A member of the Portuguese Labour Corps at the lumber camp at Stover. Died of pneumonia at Chudleigh VAD Hospital 11 Oct. 1917.

TRUSHAM HARVEST FESTIVAL

Our Harvest Festival will take place on Sunday September 16th, starting in the village hall at 10am for our all-age Harvest celebration thinking about planting, feeding, watering with tea/coffee+ bacon or veggie baps, before moving to the church, thinking about harvesting and giving thanks.

Letting us know if you're likely to come would help with catering (but do come, even if you haven't been able to let us know in advance!)

We are supporting THAT's foodbank (Teignbridge Homeless Action Today), which works to alleviate food poverty. So, please don't bring traditional harvest gifts such as garden produce. Longlife produce is needed. Almost any longlife food, toiletries and basic household cleaning materials would be welcome. If you would like someone to pick up your goodies, please contact us.

TRUSHAM VILLAGE QUIZ

Back to normal! Shake off that summer sloth and sharpen your pencils. Much easier and more fun than the gym is the gentle brain workout you can get at the village quiz. Not been before? Try it out - meet other villagers, marvel at their banter - and sometimes their bizarre knowledge! All this and light refreshments for £4.

Friday 21st September 7.30pm in the Hall where, in their school-room, you can imagine generations of Trusham children being put through paces. Be reassured - no canes will be used.....

CADAS

On 21st September Katharine Lowrie will be telling us about "Running South America with my husband and other animals". On 19th October Antony Buller who will be telling us "How Mankind has changed the Exe estuary over the last 2000 years".

AND

WELCOME

A warm welcome to those who have moved into Trusham over the past months. Though a very small village, there's lots to recommend it - not just what's going on, but its location and longevity. Check out the village website www.trusham.com - discover who was trudging up the muddy/dusty path to be baptised or married centuries ago or to go to the village school. If you haven't visited the church, trudge up there yourself - well worth the exercise for the views and the peace and sense of past

OPEN ALL HOURS!

Well almost! The Cridford is now open for drinkers, eaters and socialisers as follows:

Monday-Saturday 11am-11pm:

Lunch available 12 noon-2.30pm; dinner 6pm-9pm

Sunday 11am-10.30pm;

Sunday lunch 12 noon-3pm

Welcome to Paul, Ness, Leon and Noah - and their menagerie

DAISY, DAISY.....

I would just like to thank everybody in the area that spent their valuable time looking for my lurcher puppy.

It shows how people pull together when something bad happens.

I found here in the valley below the church caught up in a load of brambles, she is all good and happy to be home. Thanks again.
